The Alleged Defaleation of the New York Tobacco Merchant.

The Journal of Commerce has a version of this case, to which the telegraph has alluded before:

There was considerable excitement in finan-There was considerable excitement in financial circles growing out of a report that a leading broker in the foreign tobacco trade had committed forgery of mercantile paper to the amount of $250,000, upon which he had realized, and then absconded to Europe with the proceeds. The gentleman alluded to is Mr. M. Rader, whose office is at No. 92 Wallstreet, but we learn from his son, who is associated with him in business, that the report in question does his father gross injustice, and is question does his father gross injustice, and is question does his father gross injustice, and is without any substantial foundation in fact. There appears to have been some dispute between Mr. Rader and a large cigar and tobacco dealer, whom the former claims to have assisted so far that he was in some danger of becoming involved himself. If Mr. Rader ob-tained any notes which that firm claim as their tained any notes which that firm claim as their property, and realized upon them for his own advantage, he has doubtless done it for the purpose of securing himself against anticipated loss, in a manner he may have deemed justifiable, but to which they may very likely object. He has not gone to Europe, but to a neighboring city, probably with a view of withdrawing himself from any unpleasant collision with the other parties, until the dispute can be adjusted. Mr. Rader is possessed, as we understand, of considerable property, and has been recarded considerable property, and has been regarded as a gentleman of strict integrity, a character which we trust will be fully vindicated on the has been doing a large business, and was considered as one of the leading brokers in the foreign tobacco trade.

A RICH, MEAN MAN DEFRAUDED OF A DINNER. It was observed that a certain rich man never invited any one to dine with him. "I'll lay a wager," said a wag, "I get an invitation from him." The wager being accepted, he goes next day to the rich man's house about the time he was to dine, and tells the servant that he must speak with his master immediately, for he could save him a thousand pounds." for he could save him a thousand pounds."
Out came the master. "What is that sir?
Can you save me a thousand pounds?" "Yes, sir, I can; but I see you are at dinner; I will go myself and dine and call again." "Oh, pray, sir, come in and take dinner with me."
The invitation was accepted. As soon as dinner was over, and the family had retired, the conversation was resumed. "Well, sir, said the man of the house, "now to your business.
Pray let me know how I am to save a thousand pounds." "Why, sir," said the other,
"I hear that you have a daughter to dispose of in marriage." "I have, sir." "And that you intend to portion her with ten thousand pounds." "I do, sir." "Why, then, sir, let me have her, and I will take her at nine thousand." The master of the house rose in a passion and kicked him out of doors. passion and kicked him out of doors.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE ON "FREE SOUTH'

BAILEY .- The New York Tribune observes: We are asked to solicit and receive contributions in aid of the r-cestablishment of Mr. butions in aid of the r-cestablishment of Mr. Wm. S. Bailey's Free South, of which the printing materials were destroyed by a mob at Newport, Kentucky. It does not seem to us right to make the appeal required. The earnest anti-slavory men who could be expected to give anything for such an object are generally poor, and they have been taxed for such objects repeatedly. We apprehend that the money already expended on Mr. Bailey's paper might have been used to better purposes.

A FLEET MARE SENTIMENTALLY CONSIDERED. A correspondent of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, writing from Kalamazoo, of "Flora Temple," saw her a few minutes after the trotof the harness-and as she stood there covered all over with blankets and glory, breathing so quietly and cosily, she fixed her large, ing so quietly and cosily, she fixed her large, intelligent eyes on my admiring gaze, winked knowingly, and said to me as plainly as human eyes could do it: My dear Major, I saw you were waiting to make a good report of me to Wilkes, and you see I have gone and done it!" Saidli, "Flora," my dear, have you done your best?" but she only winked a trifle more roguishly and answered with a "neigh." roguishly and answered with a "neigh."

A MINISTER KILLS A PHYSICIAN IN MISSOURI. Rev. John W. Moseley, member of the Pres-bytery of Central Missouri, shot and killed a Wilson, at Sarcoxie, Mo., on the 1st inst. Dr. Wilson was an old settler of that place, and had a wife and several children, one son grown and a daughter married. He had for some time been making unlawful advances to Moseley's sister, the mother of six children, having written her a letter of eight pages, proposing an elopement and marriage, and sent it by his daughter-in-law, who handed it to Moseley's mother. She showed it to her on, and it resulted in his killing Wilson. Moseley was immediately tried and acquitted by the civil authorities.

FATAL AFFRAY IN MISSISSIPPI-A PLANTER SHOOTS A BULLY DEAD .- An old grudge having existed for some time between Mr. Sanderson, planter in Marshal County, and Walter G. Clarke, of Abbeville, they met at the University Hotel, in Oxford, on the 26th ult., when Clarke abused the other and tried to shoot him, but was prevented. After tea they met sgain, and Clarke beginning another assault, Sanderson drew a pistol and shot the bully dead. Sanderson was acquitted before a legal tribunal.

PROSPROTIVE DURL BETWEEN TWO INDIANA EDITORS.—Mr. Defrees, editor of the Indianap-olis Atlas, and Mr. Heilscher, of the Free Press, having had a difficulty concerning an editorial in the latter journal, followed by a long correspondence, it was rumored on Saturday that they had gone with their seconds to Kentucky to fight a duel. It was said the meeting would take place yesterday morning; but we presume the whole affair is bosh.

CHILD KIDNAPPED AT COLUMBUS .- A little girl three years old, daughter of a widow named Martha Scott, employed upon a canal boat, was stolen at Columbus, Ohio, from the boat on the evening of the 4th, by a wretch who pretends to be a boarding kouse-keeper in Circleville. The man, in company with a negro, carried the child away about dusk, since which time it has not been heard of.

Robert of a Wisconsin Bank.—One night of last week the safe of the Bank at Eau Claire, Tomah, was blown open and robbed of about $7,000 in mortgages, land warrants and cash. Two persons, supposed to be the robbers, were apprehended at that place while in the act of taking the cars to leave town; but none of the stolen property of the bank has as yet been recovered.

A Man's Body Cur Nazaly in Two.—At Hallowell, Me., last Thursday, Mr. Lewy Gliblair accidentally fell upon a revolving circular saw, by which his body, near the pit of the stomach, was cut nearly in two, one arm severed near the clbow and one hand cut off near the wrist. He survived this shocking

SATURDAY EVENING'S DISPATCHES

From Charlestown.

CHARLESTOWN, VA., November 5.—Shields Green, one of the negro prisoners, was found guilty this morning. The first count, for treason, was abandoned, upon objection being taken by Mr. Sennitt, that it was not proved that the prisoner was a free person, and there-fore did not come under the statute which reads "any free person." Sentence deferred. Cope-land is now on trial, Mr. Sennitt defending. Tranquility is in process of restoration.

Falling of a House. HARTFORD, CONN., November 8.—The four-story brick store of S. Rockwell & Son, cor-ner of Morgan and Front-streets in this city, fell between six and seven o'clock this morning. The building was nearly new, and contained 1,500 barrels of flour, and large quantities of grain, provisions, &c. No one was killed. One-half of the building is a wreck from cellar to roof. Loss estimated at $8,000.

Outward Bound.

New York, November 5.—The Ocean Queen sailed to-day for Southampton and Havre with $948,587 in specie, and one hundred and forty-eight passengers, among whom are Mr. A. S. Hill, of the Tribune; Dr. J. Frazier, U. S. A., and Dr. S. R. Elliott, of Staten Island. The Kangaroo also sailed for Liverpool with $170,000 in specie and two hundred and thirty two recents. thirty-two passengers.

From Havana.

New York, November 5.—A letter from Havana, of the 30th ultimo, says: "There is a report of a conspiracy, or something of that character, having been discovered among cer-tain military officers and the soldiery at Matanzas. Various arrests are understood to have taken place, but no further particulars have been permitted to reach the public ear."

Pennsylvania Politics.

New York, November 5.—A dispatch to the Express says that the Pennsylvania Opposition State Committee has agreed to call a State Convention to elect delegates to a National Opposition Convention of the whole Union. Suspended.

New York, November 5 .- Messrs. Morse

Bro., uncurrent money brokers, suspended to-day, and made an assignment to Charles A. Meigs. Liabilities small, and creditors will probably be paid in full. Boston, November 5.—The oil manufactory of Spear, Burke & Co., at Winthrop, Mass., was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $8,000; mostly insured. A LITTLE GIRL MURDERED BY A BOY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—An intelligent little girl aged 11, named Mary Elizabeth Eagins, was shot dead on the 25th ult. near Morristown, Penn. The person who committed the deed is John Famous, about 8 years of age, the son of Wm. s, a respectable neighbor. asked why he committed such a terrible deed, he said he "did not do it on purpose," that "the dog had jumped on the gun, knocking it on the floor, and it was not his fault." The gun was found lying on a bed in an inner room, and from the character of the wound must have been held in a level or horizontal position when discharged.

Some members of the household say that Famous had previously made threats that "he would come there and shoot Liz, some time," but this seems to have been known only among the children. A hearing of the case was had on Saturday last, when the boy was committed to answer at the next term of Court.

A PARISIAN ACTRESS BEGGARING HERSELY FOR LOVE .- M'lle Judith, of the Theater Francais, in Paris, has been compelled to suc for the privilege of bankruptey. The event has caused the most tremendous excitement in the gay world to which the lady belongs. Some of the incidents connected with this peculiar failure are touching enough. The lady has proved beyond a doubt that she had long ago been compelled to part with every one of her valuables, and that at the present moment she owns scarcely more than the dresses she has in daily wear. Love, as usual, is the cause of the despoilment—the extraordinary idea of sending a dying friend to Ma-deira in a vessel of her own, fitted up in the richest and most expensive style, and ena-bling him to finish his days amid all the luxuries of an Eastern Pachs, has caused the ruin she is compelled to avow. A BONAPARTE ABOUT TO BECOME A CAR-Bonaparte is a son of old Lucien, the Prince de Canino. This young man is a priest of the Romish Church, and being a personal protege and favorite relative of his Imperial cousin at Paris, has seen himself speedily raised from one clerical dignity to another, till at last the influential post of Private Sec-retary and Almoner to Pio Nono himself had to be accorded to him. Nothing else stands between him and the purple of the Cardinal but the fact that he is not yet thirty. It is thought, however, that the law may b from to suit the case, and that on the decease of Pius IX. he may be made Pope, through the influence of Napoleon III.

A BETROTHED COUPLE BURNED TO DEATH .-A young couple, in Hopewell County, N. J., sitting together, a day or two since, by a warm stove, fell asleep, and while asleep the young lady's dress took fire. As soon as they awoke, the young man made every exertion to extinguish the fire, but without success. She then ran out, but wherever she ran the flames continued to burn, until her clothing was all consumed. She lived only a few hours afterward. The young man was seriously damaged, and will not recover. The parties were engaged to be married, and the lady had on the day of this sad affair purchased some articles for the intended wedding. young couple, in Hopewell County, N. J.

Two Man Supposated in a Grain Elevator. A melancholy accident, by which two men, named James Gallagher and John Hull, lost their lives, occurred on Wednesday, at a warehouse owned by Sunges, Buckingham & Co., in Chicago, on the Central Railroad wharf. While engaged in loading the propeller Free State, from the warehouse, with new corn, the spouts became clogged, and it was found necessary to send two men down into the bin to clear them. Not returning at the usual time. clear them. Not returning at the usual time alarm was excited, and a search made, which resulted in finding their dead bodies buried in the grain.
